Please be ready to justify to the US Attorney General how you continue to do business under magical memories entertainment, when the New York LLC with that name was abandoned in 2016.

Also... Unable to find a registration in Florida.

You are paying your taxes, aren't you?

Hi Marc,

I just wanted to let you know that I have taken the time to review the multiple emails, social media messages, and reviews that I was able to find. First and foremost, I want to thank you for taking the time to write such a thorough account of your experience. I really appreciate all your comments and insights as they have helped me gain a better understanding of the situation.

First, I want to express how proud I am of my staff for how they have handled this situation thus far. I must admit, in my 20 years of business, I have spoken to thousands of clients, but I have never had anyone write such a flurry of messages in different formats so quickly. I can see that Ara has tried her best to explain the situation and accommodate your needs. However, it is evident that her responses have not been sufficient, which is why I have taken the time this late Saturday evening to personally review the situation.

As Ara has mentioned, the last thing we would ever want to do is mislead you in any way. That being said, it is very clear that it was not the case here. As you can see in your initial quote, it does state, "We offer a variety of entertainment options for kids' parties, including our clown program." I apologize that you were initially quoted for a basic birthday party clown designed for kids' parties on The Bash. In your later quote, it was updated to a clown better suited for adult events like yours. As I'm sure you can agree, since your event is an adult event, "entertainment options for kids' parties" would not be appropriate.

That being said, I feel very uncomfortable with this situation and the statement you sent, asking, "What type of amends are you offering in return for removing the posts on Facebook, Instagram, and Google?" I am not an attorney, but I will be reaching out to mine as well as the local authorities for them to review all of your communications to identify if this does constitute extortion and goes against New York blackmail crimes.

While writing this email, I noticed that you have sent more messages. As you acknowledged on Facebook, "continuing harassment is actionable," so please consider this as you decide how to proceed.

Although you do have every right to take any appropriate actions you believe are needed, if by Sunday, July 9th at 9:00 am, all your postings, comments, and reviews are removed, we can both go our separate ways and chalk this up to a big misunderstanding.

Sincerely,

Steven Burchard

Hello, Marc.

First and foremost, I would like to express our gratitude for bringing your concerns to our attention. We take all feedback seriously and strive to provide the best possible service to our valued clients.

Upon reviewing your case, I want to assure you that our team is committed to delivering transparent and competitive pricing for our services. However, it seems that there might have been a misunderstanding or miscommunication, which led to the perception of different prices being quoted.

To clarify the situation, let me explain our pricing process. When a client requests a quote, our team carefully evaluates the specific requirements of the event, such as location, duration, type of entertainment, and any additional services requested. Based on these factors, we provide a comprehensive and personalized quote that reflects the unique needs of each client.

In some cases, after receiving the initial quote, clients may request modifications to the services or additional requirements that were not initially included. When such changes occur, we reevaluate the pricing to provide the most accurate and up-to-date estimate. These adjustments may lead to variations in the pricing, which can sometimes cause confusion.

However, please be assured that it is never our intention to mislead or deceive our clients. We strive to maintain transparent communication throughout the entire process and make every effort to ensure that any modifications in the pricing are clearly communicated and agreed upon by the client.

In light of your feedback, we have reviewed our internal processes and communication channels to identify any areas where improvements can be made. We will take your concerns into account and implement necessary measures to prevent similar misunderstandings in the future.

Again, I apologize but I sent the updated quote for both the clown and fire show. The clown show is at $1100 for 2 clowns for 2 hours, each.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ara Pineda
